

OFFICIAL BOOK CLUB KIT

THE FRACTURE

TRUST. BETRAYAL. REDEMPTION.

A reader companion for exploring memory, trust, perception, betrayal, and the difficult path toward truth.

INSIDE

- Spoiler-free book overview
- Twelve discussion questions
- Behind the story and author bio
- Author visit invitation
- Printable host guide

DIANNA WRIGHT

diannawrightauthor.com

Before the Conversation

After waking in a stranger's villa with no memory of the night before, Phillip Reynolds must uncover who framed him before a carefully constructed betrayal destroys his marriage, reputation, and life.

Phillip remembers raising a glass in Belize. He remembers nothing after that. By morning, he is beside a mysterious woman with no explanation for the missing hours. When photographs appear, they seem to prove a betrayal Phillip insists never happened. As his marriage and reputation begin to fracture, he returns to Belize to uncover who has been watching him, studying the people he trusts, and anticipating every choice he makes.

AT A GLANCE

GENRE	Psychological suspense	SETTING	Baltimore and Belize
LENGTH	418 pages	FORMATS	Paperback and Kindle

CORE THEMES

TRUST

What happens when evidence and instinct tell different stories?

MEMORY

How reliable is identity when memory can be disrupted or manipulated?

MARRIAGE

Can love survive suspicion, secrecy, and public humiliation?

PERCEPTION

How easily can a carefully staged narrative become accepted as truth?

REDEMPTION

Does discovering the truth repair the harm caused along the way?

WHOLENESS

What must be faced before fractured lives can move forward?

CONTENT NOTE

The novel includes adult situations, memory loss, alleged infidelity, psychological manipulation, marital conflict, substance use, threats, and emotional distress.

Questions 1-6

Begin with first impressions, then explore trust, memory, and the fractures forming beneath the surface.

- 1. What did the title The Fracture come to mean to you as the story unfolded? Did its meaning change by the end?
- 2. At what point did you begin to question whether the protagonist could trust his own understanding of what was happening?
- 3. How did the conflict between what his mind believed and what his heart knew shape the choices he made?
- 4. Which moments or details caused you to reconsider your assumptions about the characters or the truth?
- 5. How did fear, memory, and buried pain influence the protagonist's perception of reality?
- 6. Do you believe the deepest fractures in the story were caused by a single event, or had they been forming over time?

Questions 7-12

SPOILER CONVERSATION

Best discussed after every member has finished the novel.

- 7. Which character did you trust the most? Did that trust ever shift?
- 8. What role did love play in the protagonist's search for truth? Did it clarify his judgment, complicate it, or both?
- 9. Was uncovering the truth enough to make him whole again, or did reconciliation require something more?
- 10. What do you believe The Fracture ultimately says about the relationship between truth, healing, and wholeness?
- 11. Were you satisfied with the ending? What emotions or unanswered questions stayed with you after the final page?
- 12. If you could ask the protagonist one question after the story ends, what would it be?

The Story Behind the Story

ABOUT DIANNA WRIGHT

Dianna Wright is an author, entrepreneur, and lifelong observer of the stories people tell, the truths they conceal, and the moments that change everything.

Her writing crosses genres, from psychological suspense and emotionally driven fiction to personal growth and spiritual exploration. Though the subjects may differ, her work is united by a fascination with the hidden forces that shape identity, perception, and the choices people make when faced with difficult truths.

WHY THIS STORY

The Fracture lived in Dianna's imagination for more than fifteen years before she finally brought it to the page. Beneath its mystery is a deeply human question: What happens when the mind believes one reality while the heart insists on another? The novel grew from Dianna's interest in trust, perception, complicated relationships, and the truths people must face before healing can begin.

INVITE DIANNA TO YOUR BOOK CLUB

Dianna welcomes invitations to join book-club conversations about The Fracture virtually or, when scheduling permits, in person throughout Frederick County and Central Maryland.

A VISIT CAN INCLUDE

- A behind-the-story conversation
- Discussion of themes and characters
- Reader questions and answers
- A signing for in-person gatherings

Request a visit: diannawrightauthor.com

Make the Conversation Easy

Use this suggested format as-is or adjust it to fit your group. The goal is a lively conversation, not a hostage negotiation with a stopwatch.

SUGGESTED 75-MINUTE AGENDA

10 MIN	Welcome and first impressions
15 MIN	Trust, memory, and early assumptions
25 MIN	Characters, relationships, and turning points
20 MIN	Ending, reconciliation, and lasting questions
5 MIN	Final reflections and next reads

BEFORE THE MEETING

- Ask members to finish the novel before discussing pages 4 and beyond.
- Choose a moderator and invite each reader to bring one question.
- Have members identify the moment when their understanding of the story shifted.
- If inviting Dianna, send the date, time zone, location, format, and estimated group size.

CONNECT, ORDER, AND INVITE

Dianna Wright

Website and author-visit requests
diannawrightauthor.com

The Fracture on Amazon
amazon.com/dp/B0HDTC2NS5

Follow Dianna on Goodreads
goodreads.com/author/show/71950422